Tour Route Script: ~40 minutes

1. (Start) Quad: Welcome to the New College Tour, today we're going to go to places in new college where you'll probably and hopefully use throughout your first and following years here.
2. DG Ivey: This is the New College library, also called the D.G Ivey. It's one of the quieter places on campus if you're looking for an easy, convenient place to study. The library offers many great resources, which includes librarians that can assist you in finding any assignment resources, a computer workstation, group study rooms, and $0.03 cent black and white printing and $0.20 cent printing for New College students.
3. Wilson hall classroom: These are the Wilson Hall Classrooms where both non-new college and new college affiliated classes take place. There's a good chance that during your time here, you'll have at least one class here. It's helpful to know where the classrooms are and their numbers, so you won't get lost trying to find them next time.
4. Writing Centre: This is the writing Centre, and it's probably one of the most underused resources by first years. If you're writing essays, lab reports, or even scholarship applications, you can book appointments with writing instructors who will give you feedback before you submit your work. It's free, so definitely make the most out of this resource.
5. Registrar's office: This is the Registrar's office. If you have questions about course selection, academic petitions, graduation requirements, financial assistance and counselling, or any other related questions, this is where you'll come.
6. Wetmore lounge: This is one of the main student spaces in the new college. You'll find students studying here, relaxing between classes, residence events, and the entrance to the dining hall. A lot of orientation activities and community events happen here.
7. Wetmore hall classrooms: These classrooms host tutorials, seminars, and smaller classes. Similar to the classrooms you have all seen before, you might have one of your classes here.
8. Tunnel: New College has connecting underground tunnels that are extremely useful during the winter when its freezing outside, so you can go from your residence to your classrooms or the library without needing to step outside of the building.

9. Student Centre: Welcome to the student Centre, which houses many of the New College affiliated clubs, some which you may be interested in joining. Currently there is an open house happening, which we highly encourage you to check out once we are done with this tour.
10. Wilson lounge: This is Wilson lounge. Similar to the Wetmore lounge, this area will mostly be a study space, or even an area to wind down with your friends and also has an entrance to the dining hall. We also have ORSL here, where they support new college students from things like student life and leadership, residence life, living in residence and student amenities.
11. Front Desk/Classroom: This is the front desk, that is a place that is open 24 hours a day and can help you access many different new college amenities, if you are residence here, this will be the place to go if you lose your room key, get locked out of your room, or if you are having any issues.
12. Atrium/NCSC Office: Welcome to 45 Willcocks, another New College residence building. Here we are standing in the Atrium, which is a great place to study or hang out with friends. It is also next to the New Collee Student Counsil office, that hot many events that create a welcoming campus environment. It is also a great place to get involved as there are many student leadership positions that you can get into if you join the council.
13. William Doo: Just at the bottom of the stairs, you will find William Doo Auditorium, where you will find many events being held. Please remember this space, as many of this year's orientation events will be hosted here!
14. Gnu Lounge: This is this gnu lounge, which is like the two other lounges, is a great place to study, spend time with friends, and take a break between classes.
15. (Back to Quad) End Message:
16. We are now at the entrance of the quad, where the tour ends. Thank you for joining us on this tour of New College and I hope that you have a great time!
17.

Accessible (minimal stairs) Tour Route: ~1 hour

1. (Start) Quad: welcome to the new college tour, today we're going to go to places in new college where you'll probably and hopefully use throughout your first and following years here
2. DG Ivey: This is the new college library, also called the dg Ivey. It's one of the quieter places on campus if you're looking for an easy, convenient place to study. It gets cold and snowy in the winter, so if it's not ideal to be walking to other study spots, this is a good place to lock in during the semester.
3. Wilson lounge: this is Wilson lounge. Similar to wet more lounge, this area will mostly be a study space, or even an area to wind down with your friends. We also have ORSL here, where they support new college students and residence by offering mentorships, events, assisting with room bookings, or even job opportunities.
4. Wilson hall classroom: these are the classrooms where both non new college and new college affiliated classes take place. There's a good chance that during your time here, you'll have at least one class here. it's helpful to know where the classrooms are and their numbers so you won't get lost trying to find them next time.

5. Front desk/classrooms
6. Atrium/ outside NCSC Office
7. William Doo
8. Gnu Lounge
9. Student center:
10. Tunnel: new college has connecting underground tunnels that are extremely useful during the winter when its freezing outside, so you can go from your residence to your classrooms or the library without needing to step outside of the building.
11. Wetmore hall classrooms: these classrooms host tutorials, seminars, smaller classes. Similar to the classrooms you all have seen before, you might have one of your classes in here.
12. Writing centre: This is the writing centre, and it's probably one of the most underused resources by first years. If you're writing essays, lab reports, or even scholarship applications, you can book appointments with writing instructors who will give you feedback before you submit your work. It's free, so definitely make the most out of this resource.
13. Wetmore lounge: this is one of the main student spaces in new college. You'll find students studying here, relaxing between classes, residence events, and maybe even mocktail pop up events. a lot of orientation activities and community events happen here.
14. Registrar's office: this is the registrar's office. If you have questions about course selection, academic petitions, graduation requirements, or any other related questions, this is where you'll come. Hopefully you won't need them, but if you do, this is the place to come for assistance.
15. End: Back to area outside the quad