TIME	TASK	RESPONSIBILITIES
4:15 pm – 4:30 pm	Welcoming panelist	Meet with panelists prior to the event outside of William Doo. Share with them the list of prepared questions and let them know how this event will work. - First, they will be asked to introduce themselves. - Following introductions, 1 question from each category of preprepared questions will be asked. - Then, student's questions alternating from direct questions and online questions will be asked.
4:30 pm – 4:40 pm	Set up Space	Help arrange space (tables and chairs) for the Spill the Tea Layout, shown below. - Instruct panelist to take a seat at the table (as shown in yellow)
4:30 pm	Welcome	To be said by Exec: "Welcome to the Spill the Tea panel, where we encourage you to ask questions and take advantage of this opportunity to learn from upper-year students. Please be mindful when asking questions by ensuring that all questions are respectful, appropriate, and considerate of panelists and fellow attendees. Let's work together to create a positive and supportive environment for everyone"
4:40 pm – 6:30 pm	Welcome Students	Welcome students to the event - Be on standby in the auditorium and deal with any problems that may arise.
		In the case the Exec is not present: Host the event. - Read Welcome message.

		- Ask Panelist to introduce themselves. - Let students know the format of the event: "We will start this event by asking a few preprepared questions, and then we will open the floor to questions. Student may either raise their hand or submit questions online using the QR code on the presentation." - Click through PowerPoint and ask questions to the panelist. - When you get to the "Audience Questions" slide, open the floor. Tell everyone: "We will be alternating between online and in-person questions." - If there are a lot of Audience questions, continue with these until the end of the event. If there are not a lot of question, move forward with the presentation and ask the panelist the remaining preprepared questions, do allow students to ask any questions as they come up during this time.
6:30 pm – 6:45 pm	Clean-Up	Collect prepared question sheets and dispose of them. Help clean up the space and ensure that no trash is left behind.
